

Colliers International is looking for

INTERN (financial analyst)

to join our thriving Valuation team

We offer an opportunity to become a member of a dynamic and professional team. Working with us will give you an opportunity to get involved with the most prominent real estate projects in the region. Apart from the motivating business environment, we offer an attractive compensation package and a good range of benefits, as well as professional development opportunities. At Colliers, we push each other to be better than we thought we could be. We go the extra mile for our clients and partners, creating memorable experiences that enhance and grow our relationships. And we have a lot of fun along the way.

KEY RESPONSIBILITIES

Data collection, monitoring, analysis

Preparation of financial calculations

Doing site visits

Work with Valuation Team in various valuation and consultancy projects

Produce accurate documents within schedule

Tracking market activity and forecast future trends

REQUIRED DEGREES, SKILLS AND COMPETENCIES

Higher education at least 3rd year student: Finance or Business Administration

Previous practice in analytical field - preferred

High level of attention to detail

Advanced knowledge of Microsoft Excel

Excellent communication skills

Latvian, English languages

Great analytical skills

Strong self-motivation and result driven approach

Strong desire to develop in real estate field

Send your CV to Colliers.Latvia@colliers.lv

N.B. Only candidates selected for the second round will be contacted.

Personal data mentioned in your application will be processed in the recruitment and selection process of the company.