

Riverdale Office Building Sold for $1M

by Arkansas Business Staff

2200 Brookwood Drive

Cline Construction Group of Little Rock will soon move to the only vacant space at a multi-tenant office building in the Riverdale area of Little Rock.

Karen Cline purchased the 9,000-SF building at 2200 Brookwood Drive earlier this month for $ 1 million. Her husband, Ernie Cline, owns the general contracting firm.

Three other businesses will continue operating as tenants at the location.

The seller was the Margaret L. Kemp Revocable Trust, led by trustee Ellen Rogers. It was represented by Jamie McLarty of Hathaway Group.

Mark Bentley and Justin Bentley of Colliers International represented the buyer.
