

Colliers Boston's North team supports growth initiatives for Quiet Logistics

Devens MA, December 3, 2018 – Colliers International's North team recently represented tenant Quiet Logistics, a fast-growing fulfillment company for the e-commerce retail industry in a 355,000 SF lease at 64 Jackson road in Devens, Massachusetts. Greg Klemmer and Tim Brodigan of Colliers International have represented Quiet Logistics since their inaugural 10,000 SF of space located in Wilmington, MA in 2009.

After searching throughout the US, Quiet Logistics is set on expanding into the former headquarters of American Superconductor. which brings their occupancy to 630,000 SF in Devens alone. The state-of-art space will serve as a high volume robotic-enabled fulfillment center serving dozens of ecommerce brands boosting 150 full-time job opportunities through this operation.

"Klemmer and Brodigan understand how we operate and what we need. Whether in MA, MO, or on the west coast, the Colliers team has successfully led many warehouse and office lease initiatives for us for nearly a decade," shared Quiet Logistics President, Brian Lemerise.

Colliers Boston's North Team of Greg Klemmer, Vice President North Suburban Team and Tim Brodigan, Senior Vice President Suburban Brokerage.
