

Colliers Continues Growth in Boston With Addition of Veteran CBRE Advisor, Matt Siciliano

Siciliano Joins Team of Talented Professionals Focused on Increasing Colliers International's Boston Presence

BOSTON, MA, JUNE 1, 2020 – Leading global commercial real estate services firm Colliers International announces it has hired veteran real estate professional Matt Siciliano as Senior Vice President in its Boston office. Siciliano brings with him over seventeen years of advisory and transaction experience and will continue to specialize in representing office tenants, landlords and developers in the Greater Boston market with a keen focus on the central 128 corridor.

A Babson College alumnus, Siciliano began his real estate advisory career in 2003 at CBRE where he has worked for the last seventeen consecutive years. During his tenure at CBRE, he represented both landlords and tenants primarily in the office and flex/industrial sectors, including Boston Dynamics, UNICOM Engineering, Inc., x-Chem, e-Dialog, Casenet, Azara Healthcare, Marcus Partners, Griffith Properties, and TA Realty, to name just a few.

“We are incredibly excited to welcome Matt to the team,” shared Bill Lynch. “We’ve been on the other side of the table from him in many transactions over the years and greatly respect his dedication and commitment to clients. Knowing Matt personally from our time together at Babson, I appreciate that his values are well aligned with our teams’ and we are anxious to hit the ground running.”

David Goodhue, Executive Managing Director and Market Leader of Colliers Boston, added that “Matt epitomizes the type of professional Colliers is seeking and has been attracting over the last year. He brings deep experience to the organization and shares the “client first” approach that is central to our culture. We are thrilled we have been able to expand our team during these uncertain times, and we hope to attract more great people in the near future.”
